

Do you have an interesting local story to tell?

Community Displays at Orange Regional Museum

Orange Regional Museum is offering local individuals and community groups the opportunity to display objects, photographs and stories for a period of three months during 2018/19.

A display case in the foyer of the museum has been set aside for a series of three small community displays in 2018/19.

If you or your community group is interested in working with the museum to develop a display please complete the application form (over page) and return to Orange Regional Museum by Friday 4 May 2018.
